COMMISSIONER'S NOTES

Greetings,

As we draw near the completion of another Fall sports season, let us all be thankful for our many blessings. All but one sport has completed its regular and playoff season. This past weekend marked the completion of the Competitive Cheer season with displays of great performances by all the participants. Congratulations to all the teams. We look forward to the completion of football next week so that we may turn our undivided attention to Winter sports.

Last week ended without any ejections in fall sports. Congratulations to all the schools that participated in football. Your high expectations for good sportsmanship have paid off. Unfortunately, two schools had ejections in basketball. One of the ejections was a basketball coach and the other one was a middle school student-athlete. I trust these schools will address this matter and reiterate their expectations to those individuals and their teams.

Let's continue to pursue excellence in good sportsmanship and give a gold medal effort to accomplish it.

Have a great week and Happy Thanksgiving!!!

Dr. Jerome Singleton
SCHSL- Commissioner
