COMMISSIONER'S NOTES

Greetings,

Hope all is well with you and your school. Spring sports are well underway, and the Spring weather continues to get warmer. Hopefully, the season will not be riddled with inclement weather. For some of our member schools, this is athletically the busiest time of the school year. As you juggle all the different challenges that come with conducting a Spring sports season, please know that your efforts are appreciated. Regardless of wins and losses, the experience of life lessons that each student-athlete receives is immeasurable.

While all teams would like to win every contest, take pride in the fact that your efforts are making a tremendous impact on all involved in educational athletics at your school. I commend you and ask for your continued intentional efforts in providing a rewarding experience for student-athletes. At the end of the day, the life lessons learned will outweigh the wins and/or losses of the season.

The South Carolina High School League office staff is committed to helping the member schools achieve their desired outcome of creating healthy growth for student-athletes (physically, mentally, and emotionally). Please do not hesitate to call on us for support, facilitation, and/or help in any way.

Next month (April) will mark the start of the Spring sports playoffs season, and we look forward to crowning State champions and State runners-up. As we progress through the spring sports season, let's continue to be mindful of the importance of sportsmanlike behavior from the student-athletes, coaches, and spectators. Athletics is a great teaching tool to reinforce good behavior, especially during times of emotional conflict. Thank you for your intentional efforts to promote good sportsmanship.

Finally, I share an update on the ejections of the South Carolina High School League member schools' student-athletes and coaches from last week's competition. 23 member schools had ejections. One coach was ejected and 28 student-athletes. The sports with ejections include soccer, baseball, and lacrosse. Let's continue to address these unsportsmanlike behaviors. Sportsmanship, good or poor/bad is always a choice.

Have a great week of athletics practices and competitions.

~Dr. Jerome Singleton
SCHSL- Commissioner
