ANNOUNCEMENTS

SPRING SPORTS OFFICIALS' APPRECIATION WEEK (April 14-20, 2024)

Reminder: The Spring Sports Officials' Appreciation Week is next week, April 14-20, 2024. Show your appreciation to our officials throughout the State of South Carolina. Officials work to maintain the integrity of the sports they officiate and ensure student-athletes have a safe environment to play in. Without our officials, our student-athletes would not be able to enjoy the sports they love. So show your appreciation to the unsung heroes of interscholastic contests.

Participation in Spring Sports Officials' Appreciation Week can be as simple, or as extravagant as you want it to be. You can get your teams and student groups on campus to get involved. It is a great community project for student groups. Some ideas that you can use for Spring Sports Officials' Appreciation Week can be found in the Officials' Whistle Column on page 8.

We encourage you to submit pictures of your school and athletes showing appreciation to our officials by clicking: Spring Sports Officials' Appreciation Week

Tools for Success

I MESSED UP, WHAT HAPPENS NOW?

As members of the SCHSL, our main job collectively is to educate our communities on how to develop, interact, and grow appropriately on and off the field. What happens when someone in our athletic community misses the mark or makes a bad decision? It is our responsibility to educate them on their next move. The best thing we can do is teach them accountability and give them the opportunity to restore what was damaged. Here are some steps toward restorative practice:

1. Acknowledge that an action was wrong.
2. Take accountability for the action.
3. Apologize to the person(s) who encountered the offense.
4. Create an action plan to restore what was damaged.
5. Reflect on what can be learned from the situation.
6. Commit to improving the area that triggered the negative response.
7. Forgive yourself and move forward.
