FOR YOUR INFORMATION

The Health Spot

Heart Health Awareness Month

February is Heart Health Awareness Month, a time to prioritize cardiovascular well-being and promote healthy habits for student-athletes and coaches alike. Heart disease remains a leading health concern, and maintaining a strong heart is essential for peak performance and overall wellness.

The SCHSL encourages all schools to use this month as an opportunity to educate student-athletes on the importance of heart health. Coaches and athletic staff play a vital role in promoting heart health by encouraging proper warm-ups, staying hydrated, getting enough rest, and recognizing early warning signs like dizziness, chest pain, or shortness of breath.

Direct all questions for this section to the Director of Health, Safety, and Wellness, Tim Kinney at Tim@schsl.org.

Officials' Whistle

Bench Bad Behavior

Below are a few tips for your school to use to Bench Bad Behavior at contests:

- 1) If you have a student section at your contests, be sure to set parameters for their behavior. Meet with student leaders to establish baselines for behavior at contests.
- 2) Be sure to handle inappropriate behavior swiftly. When you see a spectator getting out of hand, take care of it then and there. Remember, what you allow, you promote.
- 3) Be sure to have security present. You know your community, have the appropriate amount of security for your contests.
- 4) Positively cheer on your school's team. Do not make negative or degrading remarks to the officials or opposite team.

Direct all questions for this section to Associate Commissioner, Sarah Hayes at Sarah@schsl.org.

Tools for Success

Captains Matter

Ensuring our team captains receive the training they need is essential for their success both on and off the field. We invite your captains to participate in our virtual Captains Course—a free opportunity for all member schools. This session will equip student-athletes with the leadership skills and guidance necessary to excel in their role.

Register today for the Captains Course on February 13, 2025, at 10 AM. In just one hour, they'll gain valuable insights that will impact not only their season but their future.
