The Health Spot

NFHSLearn recently released a new course, Emergency Action Planning for Afterschool Programs, guiding athletic administrators through developing robust, venue-specific Emergency Action Plans (EAPs). This course walks participants through the essential steps of creating, practicing, and clearly communicating EAP protocols—ensuring everyone knows exactly what to do when every second counts. Whether addressing injuries, severe weather, medical crisis, or other emergencies, being ready can mean the difference between confusion and calm—preparation saves lives.

We highly encourage you to take this free course if you are newly developing or just updating your EAPs.

All questions related to the information contained in this section, should be directed to Tim Kinney, Director of Health, Safety, and Wellness, at tim@schsl.org.

Tools for Success

What an amazing Fall Captains Course!

We had outstanding participation from our member schools and their student leaders. Attendance at the Captains Courses helps prepare all South Carolina student-athletes to embrace their role as leaders both on and off the field. Congratulations to every school that took part!

This year, we introduced a new approach—equipping our leaders with the rules and regulations for good sportsmanship. Our goal is for every student-athlete to grow not only as a competitor, but also as a well-rounded human being.

We encourage your school to stay involved and engaged in the educational services we provide. These opportunities are designed to support our membership in the areas of sportsmanship, community service, and leadership.

Up next: The Middle School Virtual Summit on September 18 at 10:00 AM. Registration coming in the next couple of weeks. We look forward to seeing your student-athletes there!

All questions related to the information contained in this section, should be directed to Dr. Curtrell Rhodan, Director of Educational Services, at curtrell@schsl.org.

Officials' Whistle

THE NFHS Officials' Code of Ethics

Officials are the unsung heroes of our high school athletic contests. They uphold the integrity of the sports they officiate and help to provide a safe environment for our student-athletes to play. Did you know they have a Code of Ethics that they use as the guide to perform their duties? Here are a few guidelines:

Officials shall master both the rules of the game and the mechanics necessary to enforce the rules, and shall exercise authority in an impartial, firm and controlled manner.

Officials shall uphold the honor and dignity of the profession in all interaction with student-athletes, coaches, athletic directors, school administrators, colleagues, and the public.

Officials shall, while enforcing the rules of play, remain aware of the inherent risk of injury that competition poses to student-athletes. Where appropriate, they shall inform event management of conditions or situations that appear unreasonably hazardous.

You can find the full NFHS Code of Ethics for officials here: NFHS Officials Code of Ethics.

All questions related to the information contained in this section, should be directed to Associate Commissioner, Sarah Hayes, at sarah@schsl.org.

Future Five Stars

Whispers in the Wind

Please share this friendly reminder with coaches.

Sixth-grade students are not permitted to participate in interscholastic sports. Their role is limited to serving as team managers only. Sixth graders may not throw, catch, or hit balls as part of drills or practice, run routes or participate in plays, throw balls against a wall or engage in any type of "training" activity, join practice drills or scrimmages in any form, or take part in a "team" of sixth-grade managers engaging in physical practice or play.

This rule applies even if the sixth-grade manager is away from the team or on the opposite end of the field or court.

We appreciate your cooperation in ensuring all students are participating appropriately.

All questions related to the information contained in this section, should be directed to Dr. Lenard Hudnal, Assistant Commissioner for Middle School Athletics, at Lenard@schsl.org.
